

Oxford College of English TQ3 Programme in Torquay

Sunday 21st April	Arrival in Torquay where you will be given an Information pack and be welcomed by your Host Family. A great start to settle into the English 'way of life'.
Monday 22nd April	Easter Monday. Meet your Group Leaders and guide at Debenhams at 10am for a full day boat excursion to Dartmouth. Dartmouth is famous for its castle and the Royal Naval College. This famous Victorian College opened in 1905 and trains young officers for the Royal Navy. Every male member of the Royal Family has studied here, except for Prince Edward. This is where the then young Princess Elizabeth (now Queen Elizabeth the 2 nd) first met her future husband, Prince Philip. You will see Greenaway House, the home of the 'Queen of Crime' Agatha Christie, which was the scene of some of her books. Walk around the old quayside around the maze of fascinating old streets. Look out for the famous steam train across the river which travels from Kingswear to Paignton. You can sit on the harbour wall and take part in crabbing.
Tuesday 23rd April	09:00-10:30 & 11:00-12:30 ASSESSMENT TEST & LESSONS at Oxford College of English, 61 Abbey Road, Torquay, TQ2 5NN.
